EDConnect 2020 – Scholarship Application

The Seattle Chapter is offering four (4) EDConnect 2020 Full Conference scholarships of $299 each to its members to encourage attendance at the National SDA EDConnect 2020 conference.

Please review the Scholarship Terms and Conditions before submitting your application. Your submission confirms that you agree to the terms and conditions of this scholarship.

Scholarship Terms and Conditions

The Scholarship Committee will award the scholarships based on the applicant’s response to the application questions. The scholarships will be awarded solely at the discretion of the committee.

Scholarships will be awarded on the following conditions being agreed to by recipient:

- The recipient agrees to attend and share what they learned from at least one of the webinars being offered on one of the six days during EDConnect 2020. Refer to the “After EDConnect 2020” section for specific knowledge-sharing details.

- The recipient allows SDA Seattle Chapter the right to publish or distribute the recipient’s knowledge-sharing in its entirety or any portion thereof.

- If the scholarship recipient does not attend EDConnect 2020, or does not share knowledge by the deadlines stated, SDA Seattle Chapter will not fund the $299 scholarship to the winner.
After EDConnect 2020

The recipient must share what they learned at EDConnect 2020. The knowledge-sharing can take several formats; choose one:

- Roundtable
  Presented by the scholarship recipient. Roundtable must last one hour and must be focused on one of the EDConnect 2020 sessions you attended (to allow for SDA certification credit). The roundtable will be offered to all SDA members via conference call. (The Seattle Chapter can assist with conference call capability, if necessary.) If you choose this format, the roundtable must be presented no later than December 4, 2020. To schedule your roundtable, please contact Carrie Thompson, CDFA, at cthompson@studioms.com, Education Chairperson.

- Webinar
  Presented by the scholarship recipient. The webinar must last one hour and must be focused on one of the EDConnect 2020 sessions you attended (to allow for SDA certification credit). The webinar will be offered to SDA members. (The Seattle Chapter can assist with webinar capability, if necessary.) If you choose this format, the webinar must be presented no later than December 4, 2020. To schedule your webinar, please contact Carrie Thompson, CDFA, at cthompson@studioms.com, Education Chairperson.

Reimbursement: Once the knowledge-sharing has been completed, the chapter will reimburse the scholarship recipient the $299 Full Conference SDA Member Registration fee based on receipts submitted to the chapter’s Treasurer. Please submit receipts to Kurt Wong, CDFA, at kwong@studioms.com
